Description :

Flexi Wire (Product Code: SLE/PP/12) is a bendable craft material made of colourful wires wrapped in yarn, used for twisting and shaping simple models in nursery and kindergarten activity sessions. Children bend it into flowers, animals and many other shapes, which exercises hand-eye co-ordination and small motor skills. It is supplied by Jain Scientific Equipments Pvt Ltd (ScienceLab), Ambala, a school science kit supplier in India, for nurseries adding a craft element to a preschool kit.

What Is Flexi Wire Used For?

In a pre-primary craft session, each child takes a length of flexi wire and bends, twists and loops it to build a flower, an animal outline or any shape they imagine. The yarn covering makes the wire comfortable to hold, and each bend stays where the child puts it, so finished models can be displayed on a table or used in play afterwards.

Teachers can turn the activity into early learning by asking children to sort pieces by colour, count the petals on a flower or copy a simple shape shown on the board. Gripping and shaping the wire strengthens the small hand muscles children later need for holding a pencil. Supervise young children while they work and check the wire ends before and after each session.

Supplier

Jain Scientific Equipments Private Limited trades as ScienceLab and supplies Flexi Wire alongside the counting, matching and shape activities in its Pre-Primary range.
